Who we are

UK STEM is responsible for determining the purposes and means of ‘processing’ personal data – which essentially means everything we do with it.

The Data Protection Officer (DPO) for UK STEM is Beckie Cargill, available to contact at info@ukstem.uk.

What we need and what we do with it

If you are part of the Champions for Wind, we need your name, work email address, work postal address and information on your teaching subject and background. Your email address is so we can communicate with you about the programme and support you through it.

Who we share your data with

If you are part of the Champions for Wind, we don’t share your data with anyone

International data transfers and security

Your data will never be transferred outside of the EU.

How long we hold your information

We hold your information for however long is necessary. Typically, this would be for six years (in line with HMRC advice), but if we’re still in contact with you we’ll keep it for longer (with your consent).

Automated decision making

No automated decision making will be carried out using your data.

Your rights

You have the right to rectify your data at any time or to access your data at any time. If you are a member of the Champions for Wind this can be done by email to info@ukstem.uk. If you would like to withdraw your consent – you can do this by contacting our DPO at info@ukstem.uk.

What happens if you don’t provide your information?

Unfortunately, it’s not possible to support you on the Champions for Wind programme if you don’t want to provide your information. However, we can promise not to share it or contact you if you don’t want us to.

Concerns or complaints

If you have any concerns or complaints, please don’t hesitate to get in contact with our Data Protection Officer info@ukstem.uk. If you feel like you would like to take this further, please contact the ICO.

Where we got your information (if you didn’t provide it)

We don’t have access to any information that’s not been provided by you. If you don’t think you gave us your information, please contact our DPO at info@ukstem.uk and we will look into it for you.
